Motor Dredge Sinks After Collision With Ship

SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE TRIMONT CREW ARE LOST

CRASH WITH STEAMER NEW YORK OCCURS IN LONG ISLAND SOUND

FIVE MEMBERS OF TRIMONT'S CREW RESCUED BY THE STEAMER

New York, May 7.—(U.P.)—The motor dredge Trimont sank in Long Island sound today with the loss of several members of its crew after a collision with the steamer New York of the Eastern Steamship lines.

Five members of the Trimont's crew were rescued by the steamer, radio messages to the coast guard said. Three men were missing and assumed to have drowned, the message said.

Coast guard vessels which went to the scene of the collision remained in search for bodies of the victims while the steamer left for New York.

The New York was inbound from Boston when it collided with the Trimont one mile west of Race Rock. The dredge was proceeding to New York with a motorboat in tow. Coast guards here said there was a heavy rainstorm when the accident occurred about 1:30 A. M., and that a mist shrouded the sound.

The Trimont, a 124-ton motor dredge owned by the Trimont Dredging Company of Boston, had been working on a dredging job at New London, Conn., for the Merritt-Chapman-Scott Construction Company. Officials of the construction company said they believed the Trimont was carrying double its usual crew of four when the collision occurred.

Immediately after the collision, according to the coast guard, the New York put about and picked up five members of the crew. The steamer was undamaged by the impact.

The Trimont went down almost at once, wireless messages said, and was believed to have taken with it the remaining three members.

The New York reported the collision to the coast guard bases here and in New London. A patrol boat in the vicinity intercepted the message for aid and proceeded to the scene. Another vessel set out from the New London base.

SEARCH FOR FRANCIS CROWLEY, "2-GUN" KILLER

WANTED FOR 2 AND POSSIBLY 3 MURDERS COMMITTED

YOUTHFUL DESPERADO BELIEVED HIDING NEAR SOUTH HAMPTON, L. I.

New York, May 7.—(U.P.)—Search for Francis Crowley, "two gun" killer, wanted for two and possibly three murders, centered today near South Hampton, L. I., where the youthful desperado was believed to be hiding.

More than 100 state and county policemen were ordered to Suffolk county, instructed to "shoot to kill" at any show of resistance.

Police expected to find Rudolph Guringer, 220 pound thugman, wanted with Crowley in connection with the murder of Virginia Brannen, dance hall hostess, hiding with Crowley.

They did not expect to find Helen Walsh, 16, who, police say, was with Crowley when he killed Patrolman Frederick Hirsch early yesterday. They believed Crowley had killed the girl who, as a witness, might convict him of first degree murder. Bullet holes and blood-stains on the murder car were the basis of that belief.

Three Nassau county residents who knew Crowley as a boasting gunman, were held as material witnesses. Mrs. Jeremiah Walsh, mother of Helen, was questioned but not detained. She defended Crowley warmly.

DRILL RELEASED BY HABEAS CORPUS

Madison, Wis., May 7.—(U.P.)—Harry Hamilton Drill, 20, son of a St. Paul attorney, was released from custody on a writ of habeas corpus today after he had been held since April 19, on a charge of kidnapping his estranged heiress wife, Helen Fisher Drill, in New York.

"I am satisfied that so far as Drill is concerned, he cannot be held for kidnapping his wife, either in this state or in New York," said Judge S. B. Schein, who reserved decision until tomorrow on the case of Elmer Peterson and Howard Caldwell, St. Paul youths who assisted Drill in removing his wife from New York state.

SAYS CLERGY AND LAITY SHOULD AVOID COCKTAILS

Syracuse, N. Y., May 7.—(U.P.)—Clergy and laity should avoid cocktails as a step toward enforcement of prohibition, Judge George T. Davis of Rome declared at a meeting of the central New York diocese in Trinity Episcopal church.

He added that "if we can get congress to change the law by the necessary two-thirds vote, all right, but I prefer the opinions of Henry Ford, Thomas Edison and Evangeline Booth to those of Henry Curran."

SEWAGE DISPOSAL IN TWIN CITIES MAY BE SETTLED

HAD BEEN SET BACK BY VETO OF GOVERNOR FLOYD B. OLSON

SOLUTION REPORTED PENDING AFTER CONFERENCE IN THE EXECUTIVE'S OFFICE

St. Paul, Minn., May 7.—(U.P.)—Sewage disposal in the Twin Cities which was set back by a governor's veto may be settled through the efforts of Gov. Floyd B. Olson, it appeared today.

While no detailed plan has been worked out by Minneapolis and St. Paul officials regarding the question of metropolitan drainage, progress toward a solution was reported after a meeting in the governor's office yesterday afternoon.

Twin City officials will meet Monday to work out some agreement if possible which will answer the 10-year-old question. William N. Carey, St. Paul engineer, and N. W. Elsborg, Minneapolis city engineer, are expected to work out some tentative plan to which both cities will agree.

This plan, it is expected, will provide for a joint disposal plant for Minneapolis and St. Paul. South St. Paul will have to arrange its own interests independently.

Sewage disposal became more than a Twin Cities problem because of its relationship to the Mississippi river and the northern Minnesota lakes. Towns below South St. Paul have protested against pollution while towns above Minneapolis in central and northern Minnesota have objected to the drainage of summer resort lakes so the Twin Cities could untangle the difficulties of metropolitan drainage.

MOTHER OF AIMEE GROWS WEAKER

MOTHER OF EVANGELIST MAY BE REMOVED TO HOSPITAL SOON

Los Angeles, Cal., May 7.—(U.P.)—Transfer of Mrs. Minnie Kennedy mother of Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, to a hospital was considered today when it was reported she was growing steadily weaker from an illness that has confined her to bed during the past 48 hours.

It was reported she had occasional lapses of unconsciousness during the night and that her condition had grown worse.

Friends of the evangelist's mother say her illness has been aggravated by grief over the treatment she had received from her daughter.

Mrs. Kennedy was reported as saying she had not received word from her daughter since she started on a trip around the world—"not even from Roberta (the evangelist's daughter) was married to Bradley Smith," a ship's officer.

SENTENCED TO GO TO BED EVERY NIGHT AT 10 FOR NEXT 5 YEARS

St. Paul, May 7.—(U.P.)—Judge Howard Wheeler today sentenced Otto Juckel, 23, to go to bed every night at 10 p. m. for the next five years.

If he stays up later than that hour, Juckel must serve a five year term in the state reformatory at St. Cloud, Judge Wheeler ruled.

The sentence was passed after Juckel pleaded guilty to robbing several meat markets.

DO-X Prepares for Flight Across Atlantic

Lisbon, Portugal, May 7.—(U.P.)—The flying boat DO-X was prepared at Eolama, Portuguese Africa, today for departure on its flight across the south Atlantic ocean to Fernando Moronha island, off Brazil. The flight will be the first long over-water trip for the giant flying boat.

Miss Ada Burroughs, Aid to Bishop Cannon, Refuses to Testify Before Senate Committee

CLAIMS BODY HAS NO RIGHT TO QUESTION HER

INFORMED THAT PROSECUTION MAY FOLLOW OBSTINATE COURSE

BISHOP'S ALLEGED CAMPAIGN PROCEDURE IS BEING INVESTIGATED

Washington, May 7.—(U.P.)—Efforts of the Nye committee of the senate, attempting to investigate activities of Bishop James Cannon Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, in the 1928 presidential campaign, failed at least temporarily today when Miss Ada Burroughs, an aide to the bishop, refused to testify.

After a half hour of parrying, the hearing closed, without overcoming Miss Burroughs' refusal to answer questions on the ground that the committee was without authority.

After being once excused Miss Burroughs was called back by the committee and told that her refusal to answer might lead to prosecution and punishment.

"You are willing to stand on that position, notwithstanding that prosecution may follow?" Senator Dill asked.

"I stand on my statement," said Miss Burroughs.

"We want you to be under no illusion," Dill replied, "and to know that you understand prosecution may follow."

"I understand," Miss Burroughs said. Futile efforts were made to question Miss Burroughs on circumstances surrounding the report made by the Cannon committee accounting for $17,000 of the $64,000 contribution of E. C. Jameson, New York financier, to Cannon.

Chairman Nye, irritated, at one point reminded her that "one fact stands out, that there has been a violation of the corrupt practices act. Do you accept that responsibility?"

"I said in my statement," Miss Burroughs answered, "that I did not willingly violate the corrupt practices act."

The committee indicated by several questions that it might take other procedure to punish Miss Burroughs and reminded her frequently that she was under oath.

Nye read to Miss Burroughs a letter written by Cannon in September, 1928, soliciting funds from Jameson, and asked her if she could recognize the bishop's signature.

"I decline to answer," she replied. Miss Burroughs read a statement similar to the letter addressed by Cannon to Chairman Nye making a "formal protest against the jurisdiction of the committee."

Cannon interrupted Nye as Miss Burroughs was called to inquire if his protest against the investigation would be placed in the record. Nye told him it would be.

Miss Burroughs' statement charged that the committee was attempting to usurp the function of a grand jury. She concluded by saying "I therefore respectfully decline to testify."

FEET WANDERED WHEN HE TRIED TO GO 'STRAIGHT'

Chicago, May 7.—(U.P.)—"I'm going straight from now on," said John Kufsel when the municipal court put him on probation recently after he had confessed stealing an automobile.

Today John came back to make his weekly report to the court. "Everything's rosy," he said. "I've got a job and I obey the law."

While John spoke his piece in the court room a traffic officer outside examined the new Kufsel automobile. He found first that the license plates had been stolen from another motor car. Then he found that the machine itself had been stolen.

"Let's go over to the station," said the traffic officer when John came out of court.

There it was found, and John confessed it, that his suit and topcoat had been stolen too. Even his shoes belonged in another man's feet.

Cleveland, O., May 7.—(U.P.)—The grief stricken parents of Louise Gaudig, victim of a phantom gun fiend, today returned her body to their hometown, Pa., home.

The girl was shot by an auto sniper six hours after she arrived in Cleveland to visit relatives. She died yesterday. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gaudig, were at the bedside.

Meanwhile, police here were on special detail in an effort to capture the sniper slayer, who they believe is responsible for two other shootings. One suspect, a demented youth, is held.

BUTLER TELLS OF ESPIONAGE WORK IN MEXICO CITY

ENTERED EVERY ARMY BARRACKS IN 1914, COUNTED SOLDIERS, GOT OTHER DATA

SAYS PRESIDENT HUERTA, NOW DEAD, SIGNED ORDER WHILE INTOXICATED

Philadelphia, May 7.—(U.P.)—Brig. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, relating the story of his espionage work in Mexico in 1914, declared in a speech last night that the late Victoriano Huerta, while president, signed an order under the influence of liquor which gave the marine officer power to enter every army barracks in Mexico City, count the soldiery and examine the equipment.

Butler's work in Mexico, for which he received his first congressional medal of honor, was assigned to him by President Wilson.

In the guise of a capitalist he reached Mexico City after he had slipped over the side of a boat in the harbor at Vera Cruz at night and gone ashore in a tropical suit of civilian clothes. In Mexico City, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, then charge d'affaires at the U. S. embassy in Mexico City, who knew his mission, introduced him as "Mr. Johnson" to Mexican officials.

He convinced one of President Huerta's aides that he was a secret service man from Ohio looking for an escaped murderer, whom it is believed had enlisted in the Mexican army. The aide took him to see the president.

"I was led into the president's room," he said, "and found him in bed, drunk. I told him that if he helped me catch that murderer he would be helping the whole United States and that President Wilson might recognize his government as a result."

"That sounded good to him so he signed an order that permitted me to enter every one of the 23 or 24 garrisons in the city and inspect every man at close range. While in the garrisons I found plenty of time to note all the arrangements and the amount of munitions and artillery on hand."

LOCKWOOD TO VISIT IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Washington, May 7.—(U.P.)—The "last man" was to arrive in Washington today. Capt. Charles J. Lockwood, 77, is the sole survivor of the famed "Last Man's Club" formed of the remnant of the First Minnesota volunteer infantry in 1861. He has not been in the capital since 1861, the year his particular war started. He plans to visit his daughter and attend Decoration day services at Arlington.

$5,000,000 FIRE DESTROYS ARMORY, CHURCH

NUMEROUS HOUSES IN MASTEN HILL SECTION DAMAGED BY FIRE

20,000 POUNDS OF AMMUNITION IN ARMORY SET OFF BY FLAMES

Buffalo, N. Y., May 7.—(U.P.)—Seventy-five firemen were overcome by smoke today in fighting a $5,000,000 fire that destroyed a five-story graystone armory and a church in the Masten Hill section.

Numerous houses in the area of the fire were damaged and 20,000 pounds of small ammunition, stored in the armory, were set off by the flames. Police kept the crowd as far away from the scene as possible because of the flying bullets, and no injuries other than those suffered by firemen, were reported.

The armory, headquarters of the 106th regiment, covered two city blocks and the American Scandinavian church, which was destroyed, was five blocks from the massive, fort-like structure.

The fire was the most spectacular in Buffalo in years. All but two engine companies and two trucks answered the four alarms and the series of telephone calls which Deputy Fire Commissioner William R. Castimore used as a substitute for a fifth alarm.

Because state law forbids every engine to be called into service on one fire in a city of first class, the neighboring towns of Cheektowaga, Lackawanna and Kenmore were asked to hold their fire apparatus in readiness for emergency calls. That step was taken when Deputy Castimore feared for a time the fire would spread to the entire Masten Hill section.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined, but regimental officers said an investigation would be started promptly. It was understood that a quantity of shavings and lumber was stored in the basement for a circus the regiment had planned for next Monday.

DEATH SEALS 2 MYSTERIES

WOMAN, CHARGED WITH POISONING, MUMBLES BEFORE SHE DIES

Los Angeles, May 7.—(U.P.)—Death apparently sealed two mysteries when Mrs. Esther Carlson, charged with poisoning her wealthy lumberman employer, died as she tried to gasp a few words that might have been a confession or a denial.

Only a mumbled word that might have been "yes" came from Mrs. Carlson's lips when she was asked if she had poisoned Carl August Lindstrom, retired Chicago lumberman. She died last night from tuberculosis in the county hospital.

The other mystery that went unanswered was whether Mrs. Carlson bore a resemblance to the notorious Belle Gunness, who disappeared after being accused as the poisoner of 14 persons many years ago on her farm near LaPorte, Ind.

Mrs. Anna Erickson, a neighbor, had gone to trial on the Lindstrom poisoning charge when Deputy District Attorney Ray Stahlman was informed that Mrs. Carlson would not live another hour.

With Peter and Charles Lindstrom of Chicago, sons of the lumberman, he hastened to the hospital.

Mrs. Carlson was semi-conscious and her answers were so vague that Stahlman refused to accept them as evidence.

"Did you poison Mr. Lindstrom?" Stahlman asked.

A muffled sign which sounded like "yes" was the only response.

"You admit you gave him arsenic?" she was asked. The same sign was given in answer.

WARMER WEATHER IS NOW FORECAST

FAIR SKIES AND RISING TEMPERATURES TO PREVAIL TONIGHT

St. Paul, Minn., May 7.—(U.P.)—Warmer weather was promised Minnesota and the northwest for tonight and tomorrow by the United States weather bureau today.

Fair skies and rising temperatures will prevail over the state by tonight, it was said. Increasing cloudiness was expected for tomorrow and continued warmer weather.

Another frost was reported from all parts of the northwest this morning with temperatures ranging from 32 at St. Paul to 24 at Duluth.

Temperatures in the Dakotas were not as cold as yesterday. Devils Lake reported 28, Williston and Bismarck 32, Huron 30, and Pierre 36. Cloudy weather may bring rain by Saturday, the weather forecaster said.

Air Forces, in Three-Day Maneuvers, to Theoretically Destroy New York

In one of the most colorful demonstrations in the history of aviation, 672 planes, representing every military classification from light, speedy scouting planes to huge bombers capable of carrying a couple of tons of concentrated destruction, will take part in the United States Air Force three-day maneuvers over New York City, starting May 22. Features of the program will be a daylight and night raid. Captain Albert Stevens, flying a special photographic plane, will photograph at a long range the skyline of New York. Composite picture shows how the armada of the air will look as it soars over Gotham.

CONZET ASKS $25,000 AID TO FIGHT FIRES

St. Paul, May 7.—(U.P.)—Request for $25,000 by Grover T. Conzet, state forester, to provide additional funds for forest fire fighters now battling flames in northern Minnesota was taken under consideration today by the state executive council.

The council will ask the state highway department through its many employees scattered over the state to check on actual fire conditions before acting on Conzet's request.

A meeting was called for 10 a. m. Saturday by the council to act on the request. Special appropriation of $25,000 already has been made by the council to fight spring fires.

CONFESS WEIRD STORY OF BEARDED 'MANIAC' WAS FAKE

Mt. Clemens, Mich., May 7.—(U.P.)—Edward Spowtz, 13, and his brother, Charles, 14, didn't like their task of gathering lumps of coal from along the Grand Trunk railway right of way. So they trussed themselves to the track and after their sister, Dorothy, came to the rescue, they told the weird story of a bearded "maniac" they confessed today.

AND FACULTY, ALWAYS SO REFERRED TO

Waco, Tex., May 7.—(U.P.)—Tragedy hung over the campus of Baylor University today, shrouding the spirit of 1,500 students and pervading every nook beneath the spreading oak trees and piercing spires of ivy-clustered buildings.

Prexy was dying.

Yet they pointed with pride to the fact that he was going in the same spirit which has inspired his firm but personal and friendly presidency of the Baptist denominational school for nearly three decades. Prexy was still the clear sighted president, and was directing the school from his death bed.

Dr. Samuel Palmer Brooks was Prexy to student and faculty, always so referred to in informal conversations.

Advised that his portly body of more than 200 pounds could not withstand the ravages of internal cancer more than two weeks, he brusquely waved aside medical advice that he preserve his waning strength.

"I cannot disappoint my students," he said, and set about signing 429 diplomas for the spring graduating class.

He was able to pen his signature but 60 times yesterday, and avowed a determination to duplicate the performance daily until the task is completed—unless death wins in the battle.

Across the picturesque campus, three miles from the hospital, students passed quietly from class to class. Always there was the query: "What's the latest from Prexy?"

The latest was always the same: "Condition unchanged."

To his students Dr. Brooks sent word: "I had a good night."

"But don't tell them," he added to Dean W. S. Allen, "I'm better. For I have internal information to the contrary."

There was no surrender in the message he gave his wife: "I'm sorry to leave you, but I'm going."

Only faculty members and a few of Dr. Brooks' most intimate friends—former Gov. Pat M. Jeff, Carr E. Collins of Dallas, Baptist layman leader, Earl B. Smith, president of the Alumni Association—were admitted to his room.

With Peter and Charles Lindstrom of Chicago, sons of the lumberman, he hastened to the hospital.

Mrs. Carlson was semi-conscious and her answers were so vague that Stahlman refused to accept them as evidence.

"Did you poison Mr. Lindstrom?" Stahlman asked.

A muffled sign which sounded like "yes" was the only response.

"You admit you gave him arsenic?" she was asked. The same sign was given in answer.

WARMER WEATHER
IS NOW FORECAST

FAIR SKIES AND RISING TEM-PERATURES TO PREVAIL
TONIGHT

St. Paul, Minn., May 7.—(U.P.)—Warmer weather was promised Minnesota and the northwest for tonight and tomorrow by the United States weather bureau today.

Fair skies and rising temperatures will prevail over the state by tonight, it was said. Increasing cloudiness was expected for tomorrow and continued warmer weather.

Another frost was reported from all parts of the northwest this morning with temperatures ranging from 32 at St. Paul to 24 at Duluth.

Temperatures in the Dakotas were not as cold as yesterday. Devils Lake reported 28, Williston and Bismarck 32, Huron 30, and Pierre 36. Cloudy weather may bring rain by Saturday, the weather forecaster said.

FIRE DESTROYS
ARMORY, CHURCH

NUMEROUS HOUSES IN MASTEN
HILL SECTION DAMAGED
BY FIRE

20,000 POUNDS OF AMMUNITION
IN ARMORY SET OFF BY FLAMES

Buffalo, N. Y., May 7.—(U.P.)—Seventy-five firemen were overcome by smoke today in fighting a $5,000,000 fire that destroyed a five-story graystone armory and a church in the Masten Hill section.

Numerous houses in the area of the fire were damaged and 20,000 pounds of small ammunition, stored in the armory, were set off by the flames. Police kept the crowd as far away from the scene as possible because of the flying bullets, and no injuries other than those suffered by firemen, were reported.

The armory, headquarters of the 106th regiment, covered two city blocks and the American Scandinavian church, which was destroyed, was five blocks from the massive, fort-like structure.

The fire was the most spectacular in Buffalo in years. All but two engine companies and two trucks answered the four alarms and the series of telephone calls which Deputy Fire Commissioner William R. Castimore used as a substitute for a fifth alarm.

Because state law forbids every engine to be called into service on one fire in a city of first class, the neighboring towns of Cheektowaga, Lackawanna and Kenmore were asked to hold their fire apparatus in readiness for emergency calls. That step was taken when Deputy Castimore feared for a time the fire would spread to the entire Masten Hill section.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined, but regimental officers said an investigation would be started promptly. It was understood that a quantity of shavings and lumber was stored in the basement for a circus the regiment had planned for next Monday.

DEATH SEALS
2 MYSTERIES

WOMAN, CHARGED WITH POISON-
ING, MUMBLES BEFORE
SHE DIES

Los Angeles, May 7.—(U.P.)—Death apparently sealed two mysteries when Mrs. Esther Carlson, charged with poisoning her wealthy lumberman employer, died as she tried to gasp a few words that might have been a confession or a denial.

Only a mumbled word that might have been "yes" came from Mrs. Carlson's lips when she was asked if she had poisoned Carl August Lindstrom, retired Chicago lumberman. She died last night from tuberculosis in the county hospital.

The other mystery that went unanswered was whether Mrs. Carlson bore a resemblance to the notorious Belle Gunness, who disappeared after being accused as the poisoner of 14 persons many years ago on her farm near LaPorte, Ind.

Mrs. Anna Erickson, a neighbor, had gone to trial on the Lindstrom poisoning charge when Deputy District Attorney Ray Stahlman was informed that Mrs. Carlson would not live another hour.

With Peter and Charles Lindstrom of Chicago, sons of the lumberman, he hastened to the hospital.

Mrs. Carlson was semi-conscious and her answers were so vague that Stahlman refused to accept them as evidence.

"Did you poison Mr. Lindstrom?" Stahlman asked.

A muffled sign which sounded like "yes" was the only response.

"You admit you gave him arsenic?" she was asked. The same sign was given in answer.

In Secret Service Work

It has been a generally accepted rule that a man in secret service work for the government learned first of all to keep check on his tongue, and to make public exploits in the service has never been considered as very proper.

It has taken over a century to get even an inkling on who served President George Washington in secret service during the Revolutionary War.

Now we come to modern days and find Brigadier General Smedley Butler making one of his inevitable speeches, this time at Philadelphia, and telling all the world how he did spying work in Mexico in 1914, reporting to President Wilson.

He accuses the late Victoriano Huerta, while president of Mexico, of signing an order while intoxicated which gave Butler power to enter every army barracks in Mexico City.

Butler, in the guise of a man searching for an escaped murderer of the "states," examined every garrison and its equipment, etc.—but why talk about it and make it public?

Hundreds of other men have done their work for the government in hard, unknown tasks, have endured many things and have kept silent. Why should an officer of the marines set such an example of loquacity? Do encroaching years loosen one's tongue?

A Six-Hour Day

DOES the six-hour day strike at the heart of the country's present economic difficulties?

The president of a front-rank industry has adopted the shorter day approximately six months ago and reporting on its practical results, declared that in addition to providing new jobs—and thereby stimulating consumption—the plan has proven profitable for his stockholders as well as the employees.

The Kellogg Company of Battle Creek, Michigan, adopted the six-hour day last December 1 primarily to help relieve unemployment. By continuing to operate twenty-four hours a day and replacing the former three daily shifts of eight hours each with the present system of four shifts of six hours each, the company was enabled to employ about twenty per cent more persons.

Simultaneously with this change, the base wage scale was increased twelve and one-half per cent in order to maintain the employees' purchasing power. The minimum wage of $4 a day for eight hours was continued for the six-hour day. The plan has proved so satisfactory that it will be adopted as a permanent operating policy.

Publicity to Marriage Licenses

THE new five-day marriage law is practically worthless without some provision for giving publicity to license applications, says the Fergus Falls Journal.

Without publicity, its only effect will be to compel applicants to go to the trouble of coming to the court house to make application and then coming again five days later to secure a license. Only a comparatively few counties have daily newspapers and it is not the clerk of courts business to engage in broadcasting. In this connection it would surprise a great many people to learn that nearly one-fourth of all those who secure marriage licenses in Otter Tail county call at the Journal office and ask, and often beg, to have the publication deferred for a few days, to enable them to escape the attentions of idiotic friends.

In Secret Service Work

It has been a generally accepted rule that a man in secret service work for the government learned first of all to keep check on his tongue, and to make public exploits in the service has never been considered as very proper.

It has taken over a century to get even an inkling on who served President George Washington in secret service during the Revolutionary War.

Now we come to modern days and find Brigadier General Smedley Butler making one of his inevitable speeches, this time at Philadelphia, and telling all the world how he did spying work in Mexico in 1914, reporting to President Wilson.

He accuses the late Victoriano Huerta, while president of Mexico, of signing an order while intoxicated which gave Butler power to enter every army barracks in Mexico City.

Butler, in the guise of a man searching for an escaped murderer of the "states," examined every garrison and its equipment, etc.—but why talk about it and make it public?

Hundreds of other men have done their work for the government in hard, unknown tasks, have endured many things and have kept silent. Why should an officer of the marines set such an example of loquacity? Do encroaching years loosen one's tongue?

A Six-Hour Day

DOES the six-hour day strike at the heart of the country's present economic difficulties?

The president of a front-rank industry has adopted the shorter day approximately six months ago and reporting on its practical results, declared that in addition to providing new jobs—and thereby stimulating consumption—the plan has proven profitable for his stockholders as well as the employees.

The Kellogg Company of Battle Creek, Michigan, adopted the six-hour day last December 1 primarily to help relieve unemployment. By continuing to operate twenty-four hours a day and replacing the former three daily shifts of eight hours each with the present system of four shifts of six hours each, the company was enabled to employ about twenty per cent more persons.

Simultaneously with this change, the base wage scale was increased twelve and one-half per cent in order to maintain the employees' purchasing power. The minimum wage of $4 a day for eight hours was continued for the six-hour day. The plan has proved so satisfactory that it will be adopted as a permanent operating policy.

Publicity to Marriage Licenses

THE new five-day marriage law is practically worthless without some provision for giving publicity to license applications, says the Fergus Falls Journal.

Without publicity, its only effect will be to compel applicants to go to the trouble of coming to the court house to make application and then coming again five days later to secure a license. Only a comparatively few counties have daily newspapers and it is not the clerk of courts business to engage in broadcasting. In this connection it would surprise a great many people to learn that nearly one-fourth of all those who secure marriage licenses in Otter Tail county call at the Journal office and ask, and often beg, to have the publication deferred for a few days, to enable them to escape the attentions of idiotic friends.

WEIGHT AS A MEASURE OF TIRE QUALITY IS NOT INCLUDED IN THIS TABLE FOR TWO REASONS:

- 1st, Because no two tires of the same brand and size weigh exactly alike, and
- 2nd, Because quality of rubber and cotton fabric used, rather than the compounded weight after being mixed with other ingredients is the determining factor. Reclaimed or second hand rubber weighs more than new rubber. Tires containing a large percentage of second hand rubber, therefore, weigh more than those made entirely of new rubber—even though the tires are exactly alike in size—so "Weight as a standard by which to measure tire quality MEANS NOTHING."

The TRAIL BLAZER is Ward's second quality tire. We frankly admit it. But—certain manufacturers and dealers, jealous of Ward's deserved preeminence in the tire industry, are making and publishing misleading statements about Ward's tires. They give specifications which are NOT those of Ward's tires; and they then compare the prices of their second quality tires with those of our first quality tires—the famous Riversides. The table above shows accurately the manner in which TRAIL BLAZERS compare in quality and in price with other well known makes.

These other misleading advertisements (and if they are not intended to deliberately fool tire consumers, what IS their purpose?) also say that "Mail Order Tires are made by some unknown manufacturer ..." Well, Ward's tires are made by one of the largest tire companies in the world; a company that has always been famous for the fine quality of its products!

Here, therefore, is the correct story about Ward's TRAIL BLAZERS: They are every bit as good as other second quality tires (better than most, as the chart above will indicate) but they sell for less. Like all of Ward's tires, TRAIL BLAZERS are sold with an absolute guarantee of satisfactory service without limit as to time or mileage. If you do not need Riverside quality buy Trail Blazers—and save more money!

Ward's Always Sells for Less

No Montgomery Ward tire advertisement is complete without mentioning Ward's first quality Riversides. Riverside tires are one of the best known brands in America. They have been sold for 19 years. They, too, are made by the same large tire manufacturer mentioned above. They are the finest quality it is possible to produce. They are backed by the most liberal tire guarantee ever written. And they sell for less than any first quality nationally advertised tire on the market! These sound like sensational claims. But Montgomery Ward & Co.—one of the largest and oldest merchandising institutions in the world—now in its 60th year in business—the originators of the "Satisfaction Guaranteed or your Money Back" guarantee—stands back of every claim made in this advertisement.

WEIGHT AS A MEASURE OF TIRE QUALITY IS NOT INCLUDED IN THIS TABLE FOR TWO REASONS:

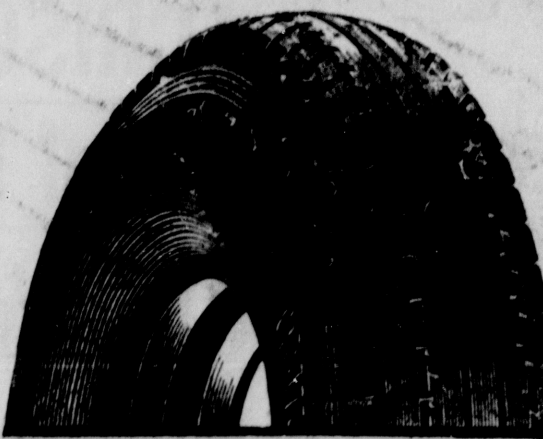

1st, Because no two tires of the same brand and size weigh exactly alike, and

2nd, Because quality of rubber and cotton fabric used, rather than the compounded weight after being mixed with other ingredients is the determining factor. Reclaimed or second hand rubber weighs more than new rubber. Tires containing a large percentage of second hand rubber, therefore, weigh more than those made entirely of new rubber—even though the tires are exactly alike in size—so "Weight as a standard by which to measure tire quality MEANS NOTHING."

The TRAIL BLAZER is Ward's second quality tire. We frankly admit it. But—certain manufacturers and dealers, jealous of Ward's deserved preeminence in the tire industry, are making and publishing misleading statements about Ward's tires. They give specifications which are NOT those of Ward's tires; and they then compare the prices of their second quality tires with those of our first quality tires—the famous Riversides. The table above shows accurately the manner in which TRAIL BLAZERS compare in quality and in price with other well known makes.

These other misleading advertisements (and if they are not intended to deliberately fool tire consumers, what IS their purpose?), also say that "Mail Order Tires are made by some unknown manufacturer..." Well, Ward's tires are made by one of the largest tire companies in the world; a company that has always been famous for the fine quality of its products!

Celebrate 36th Anniversary of Founding of Degree of Honor Lodge in City

On Tuesday evening, the Degree of Honor Lodge No. 46 celebrated the thirty-sixth anniversary of the founding of the local lodge, with its first birthday party. The party was held at the Iron Exchange Hall, following the regular meeting, about 50 attending.

Twelve tables were set for the lunch, each table representing one month in the year, and decorated accordingly. Each table had a chairman who was responsible for some song or a stunt pertaining to her month.

January came first, singing "Jingle Bells." February was decorated in a Valentine motif in pink and white and was very pretty. March table was in green and white and they sang "My Wild Irish Rose." April, representing the stork month, was decorated in yellow and white daisies, the place cards being little cradles holding dolls. The guests sang Rock a Bye Baby. The May table was decorated with a May Pole, and June featured the wedding of Andy Brown and Madam Queen. July was in red, white and blue, singing America, while August sang "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree." This table was uniquely decorated. September featured school days, while October in orange and black signified Halloween. November was "Over the River and Through the Woods" with December carrying out a Christmas motif, with the Christmas colors of green and red.

An enjoyable evening was spent.

PINE RIVER SCHOOL HEARS NAVY ADDRESS

Naval Recruiting Officer Raymond E. Kane, Brainerd, addressed the students of the Pine River high school today. He stated that an agency of the United States government exists, supported by all taxpayers as a service of national defense, which encompasses all phases of these considerations.

tions so beneficial to the youth of the United States. Mr. Kane said his talk made no brief of reasoning as to the desirability of adequate national defense, nor did he seek to define the qualification "adequate" regardless of one's views, such deliberations are beside the issue.

The point is that the navy does exist today and that as a part of its keeping of efficiency it must train men he said. It conscientiously seeks the best type of young Americans for its ranks and it zealously devotes itself to their training, health, welfare, future and benefit. Every taxpayer is a stockholder in the investment and in every phase of its opportunities, and it is every American's privilege to know what these opportunities are and it is the right of sons to participate in the benefits of the service if they are able and can qualify. Among other things he told of the care of health opportunities to advance an education already founded, and Associations—Camaraderie in a profession possessed of the fraternal spirit imbued in a service for one's country and flag.

Murphy and Cook, Crosby, appear for the bank while Hanson and Wilcox, Minneapolis, and Hilding Swanson, Brainerd, are attorneys for the defendant.

Bergh also has a counter claim against the bank.

The case is the first jury action at the May term of district court.

Stock Market Moves Up

Fractions to Over a Point

By ELMER C. WALZER
United Press Financial Editor
New York, May 7.—The stock market, still under the influence of prospects for a rediscunt rate reduction today, moved up fractions to more than a point. Trading continued dull.

Canadian Pacific was the outstanding exception to the firm tone. It opened 5,000 shares at 23 1/2 off 2 1/2 and a new low for the present shares. Selling was the aftermath of the action of directors late yesterday in declaring an interim dividend of 31 1/2 cents a share, half of the previous 62 1/2 cent quarterly rate.

"TURKEY RAISER" WORKS CHECK GAG

Game Spoiled by Clerk; Bad Check
Passer Flees Before Police
Can Be Notified

Police searched today for a check passer who posed as a turkey raiser, passing worthless checks in the amount of $5.50 at Judd Wright's hardware, $5 at Alderman-Maghan's, and $4.50 at the National Tea.

The make believe farmer also passed a check in the amount of $4.50 at the John M. Bye Clothing Co. Later Henry Cunningham of the firm became suspicious and confronted the man in Johnson's Pharmacy where he was about to pass another check in the same amount. Making good the check passed at Bye's and not asking its return, the man fled from the drug store before police could be notified.

The man, described by Mr. Cunningham as wearing a dark grey overcoat, dark suit and a snap brim hat, worked the same "gag" at each store. He made a small purchase and in payment presented a check made out to Oscar E. Krueger by Julius Norquist on the Citizens State Bank. Norquist's address was stamped on the checks as R. F. D. 2, Krueger told Mr. Cunningham he lived at 711 South 18th St. Investigation proved that no one lived at that address. On each of the checks these words were written: "In payment for two turkey hens."

Police Chief Thomas Templeton

cash warned all storekeepers not to accept checks until they ascertained

the checks were legitimate. A call to the bank on which the check is written will protect the merchant and may result in the arrest of the culprits, he said.

TWO BUNGALOWS OF ARTISTIC DESIGN

Sale of Building Under Construction at 109 Kingwood Street to A. G. Loom Reported

Two new bungalows of artistic design in the English mode are now under construction at 109 Kingwood Street and 111 Juniper Street by W. V. Heimbach of St. Paul.

The home on Kingwood Street, estimated to have a valuation of $7,000, is reported to have been sold on paper to A. G. Loom, superintendent of timber preservation of the N. P. Railway Co. Mr. Loom is reported to have been so impressed with the construction that he decided to purchase it even before it was completed.

The Juniper Street bungalow will cost approximately $5,500. Alterations are nearly complete at the William Graham building on the corner of Seventh and Kingwood streets. The building will house four modern apartments with oil heat and electric refrigeration.

CHILD STRAYS WHILE FOLLOWING POSTMAN

Jimmie Dodds Found on Laurel Street, Returned to Home After Visit in City Hall

Two year old Jimmie Dodds thought being postman was lots of fun and he envied his older playmates who could follow the postman around in his neighborhood.

Starting after the boys this morning, Jimmie was left behind, got his directions crossed and was found on Laurel street, an empty oatmeal container with a spoon in it gripped tightly in one hand. He was taken to the city hall by A. G. Lagerquist and immediately became chummy with R. T. Campbell, city engineer.

A call to the police department from the worried mother identified the child and he was taken to his home at 802 South Sixth street. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Dodds.

IS RECOGNIZED FOR SERVICE TO COLLEGE

Because of outstanding service to his college, Hjalmar Johnson, Brainerd, a student at the North Dakota State college at Fargo, has been elected a member of Blue Key fraternity, national honorary service organization, according to word received here.

Having done outstanding work in campus activities, Johnson is one of only nine men students accorded the honor by Blue Key during the spring term. Announcement of the election was made at a special convocation at the college, Wednesday, May 6.

A junior in the school of mechanical engineering, Johnson is a member of the college chapter of Sigma Phi Delta, national professional engineering fraternity.

As one of its major activities, Blue Key sponsors the Bison Brevities, all-college vaudeville show, each year.

Shoe Company Formed to Do Business Here

Articles of incorporation have been filed with Mike Holm, secretary of state, in the formation of a corporation under the laws of Minnesota known as "Minnesota Shoe Company" to do business in Brainerd.

The first officers of the corporation are:

President—V. E. Schedin. Vice President—John H. Anderson. Secretary-Treasurer—Jane R. Schedin.

The amount of the capital stock of the corporation is $10,000 divided into one hundred shares of the par value of $100 per share.

The new company will operate a shoe store at Seventh and Front Streets.

DOUGHNUT DAY SATURDAY

Camp Fire Girls Prepare for Lunch and Sale at Gas Office

The Camp Fire Girls are busily preparing for their doughnut day next Saturday. They have engaged one of Brainerd's best doughnut makers to fry doughnuts for them at the gas office. These will be sold by the dozen, or served with coffee at cleverly decorated tables, presided over by uniformed Camp Fire Girls.

All the materials to be used in making these doughnuts, have been donated by local merchants. The money earned will be used to hire a cook for their camp next summer.

MORE RAINS NEEDED TO QUENCH FIRES

Ban on Burning Remains Until Fire Peril Over; Two Face Forestry Charges

The Minnesota Forestry Department here continued today to enforce the order restricting burning permits in the district until rains drench out fires and until the forest fire situation is completely under control.

While recent rains checked spread of fires and new ones, flames exist in various wooded sections. Promise of rain over the week end brought hope to forestry officials and subordinates.

Two convictions in courts followed recent burnings. Oscar Haino was fined $10 and costs at Pillager for leaving a fire unattended and allowing it to spread, endangering the property of others.

Andrew Johnson, an employee of the County Highway Department, was fined $25 and costs in municipal court here by Judge J. H. Warner for leaving a fire unattended on the Gull Lake View road west from Highway No. 19. The fine was suspended on payment of costs after Mr. Johnson had testified that to his knowledge the fire was out when he left it. He had received a permit to burn piles of stumps on the side of the road in clearing for his road. The fire had not spread.

Painful Piles

Go Quick—No Cutting—No Suffering

It takes only one bottle of Dr. J. S. Leonard's prescription—HEM-ROID—to end itching, bleeding, protruding piles. This internal remedy acts quickly even in old, stubborn cases. HEM-ROID succeeds because it heals and restores the affected parts and removes blood congestion in the lower bowel—the cause of piles. Only an internal medicine can do this, that's why aches and cutting fail. Johnson's Pharmacy, H. P. Dunn say HEM-ROID Tablets must end your Pile misery or money back.

TROOPS ARRIVE AT HARLAN, KY.

CAVALRY AND INFANTRY UNITS OF NATIONAL GUARD TO TAKE CHARGE OF SITUATION

Harlan, Ky., May 7.—(U.P.)—Cavalry and infantry units of the Kentucky National Guard arrived here shortly after 9 A. M. today to control a situation of bloody disorders growing out of labor disputes in coal mines of southeastern Kentucky.

The troops and cavalrymen were enroute to the little mining town of Evarts, 10 miles east of here, where they were due to arrive and pitch camp by noon. The cavalry unit arrived here by train and was scheduled to move east by 10 A. M.

Meanwhile, at Evarts, a group of more than 300 miners under command of Police Chief Asa Cusick was drawn up in semi-military array—four American flags flying—to greet the troops on their arrival there.

"Everyone is glad the troops are coming," Chief Cusick told the United Press in a telephone conversation from Evarts.

Painful Piles

Go Quick—No Cutting—No Suffering

It takes only one bottle of Dr. J. S. Leonard's prescription—HEM-ROID—to end itching, bleeding, protruding piles. This internal remedy acts quickly even in old, stubborn cases. HEM-ROID succeeds because it heals and restores the affected parts and removes blood congestion in the lower bowel—the cause of piles. Only an internal medicine can do this, that's why aches and cutting fail. Johnson's Pharmacy, H. P. Dunn say HEM-ROID Tablets must end your Pile misery or money back.
